Skillfinder Sponsoring the SimCorp Global Summit 2025

As we reflect on a year of remarkable growth for us in 2024, we're thrilled to share the exciting news that Skillfinder will be helping sponsor the SimCorp Global Summit again in April 2025.

Our involvement in this prestigious event, which began in 2024, has been a key factor in expanding our global partnerships and deepening our engagement with SimCorp Dimension clients worldwide.

A Year of Growth and Collaboration

Our sponsorship of the SimCorp Global Summit 2024 in London was a resounding success, providing us with the opportunity to connect with many new and existing clients. These interactions were instrumental in strengthening our collaborations with SimCorp clients and in deepening our understanding of emerging technologies and trends in the industry.

We had the chance to explore innovative tech coming onto the market, further enhancing our ability to support clients in navigating their SimCorp Dimension projects. With new clients signing up with SimCorp, we are excited to build on this momentum and continue to provide top-tier support for SimCorp implementations globally.

In 2025, we're eager to build on the success of 2024 and look forward to helping clients optimise their SimCorp Dimension solutions across the globe.

If you're planning to be in Barcelona in April, we'd love to meet and discuss how we can support your SimCorp projects in the year ahead. Whether you're looking to discuss strategic talent needs or explore new approaches to SimCorp implementation, our team is ready to engage and collaborate.
Let's Connect.
